

In Partnership
Gitana Productions & American Friends Service Committee

Present

Voices from Darfur

personal stories of a genocide

Daoud Hari risked his life over and over again by offering his English skills to journalists in order to get the story of his people out to the world. Now he, with other Darfuri refugees are traveling the United States to tell their story directly to you. Because you can make a difference.

November 6, 2007

6:30—8:30 pm

Free and open to the public

St. Louis University Busch Student Center
20 N. Grand Blvd. (near Laclede) in the St. Louis Room

For more information call Gitana at (314)721-6556 or AFSC at (314)862-5773 Ext. 12

Program also includes:

A short documentary film on Darfur (some graphic scenes—no one under 13 years of age)

A short presentation on “Life Over Debt” in Africa (despite the multiple crises Africa faces, for every $1 Africa receives in aid, it pays $2.30 in debt service)

A special performance by Ngoma—musician/drummer/poets dedicated to social change

Display featuring National Council of Jewish Women’s “solar cooker project”

Voices from Darfur is provided with the support of the St. Louis Save Darfur Coalition, One World, the Political Science Department and the Cultural Center of St. Louis University.

Save the Dates! May 23rd—June 8th ,2008 Gitana Productions Presents

COMPLACENCY OF SILENCE: DARFUR

at St. Louis University Theater
visit www.gitana-inc.org

With support from

