

St. Louis University High School
invites applications for the following faculty position:

Speech/Theatre teacher

St. Louis University High is a Jesuit, college preparatory school with an enrollment of over 1,000 male students. Founded in 1818, the school strives to serve an economically, socially and geographically diverse student population within the St. Louis metropolitan area. Academic excellence is a trademark of the school.

MISSION STATEMENT

St. Louis University High School is a Catholic, Jesuit learning community dedicated to building Christ's Kingdom of truth, justice, love and peace.

As a Catholic school committed to its presence in the City of St. Louis, we seek talented young men who reflect the economic, geographic, and social diversity of the area and who find strength, purpose and dignity in the pursuit of wisdom and in the vision and values of Jesus Christ.

As a Jesuit school dedicated to developing our gifts for the generous service of others, we challenge this group of young men and ourselves to cultivate life-affirming virtues, lively imaginations, critical minds and compassionate hearts. Because spiritual formation must accompany the intellectual, aesthetic, social and physical formation of our students, we hope to foster habits of personal prayer and reflection.

As a college preparatory school with a historic commitment to a rigorous program of academic excellence, we strive to create in our students a lifelong devotion to learning, a devotion that informs moral choices and transforms lives.

THE SCHOOL'S EXPECTATIONS

St. Louis University High School exists to form young men who are becoming "persons for others." The School's Mission Statement forms the practical ramifications for St. Louis University High's expectations of teachers. St. Louis University High seeks to hire and retain faculty members who are proficient in their fields, who are men and women of faith, and who are persons committed to leading students in co-curricular and pastoral ministry activities. Once hired, teachers are expected to familiarize themselves with Ignatian traditions and values. The school expects teachers to keep current with professional development activities appropriate to their fields of instruction, as well as to participate in the school's in-services, retreats and days of recollection regarding Ignatian formation and development.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please send a letter stating personal interest in this faculty position and a comprehensive resume to Mrs. Jan Cotter in the Office of the Principal. Submissions must be received before Friday, March 5, 2010.

Thank you for your interest in St. Louis University High School.
