Subject to local health guidelines and SLUH's determination on safety of gathering.

From the moment a young man steps foot in St. Louis University High to the moment he accepts his diploma, everything he experiences is designed to ensure he leaves SLUH intellectually inspired, open to growth, loving, and a faith-driven "man for others" committed to doing justice.

All proceeds from Cashbah directly support the current financial aid program. Your support allows SLUH to realize its mission of serving young men based on their ability to succeed rather than their families' economic circumstances.
