

ST. LOUIS
UNIVERSITY HIGH

St. Louis University High School invites applications for the following position:

English Teacher

St. Louis University High is a Catholic, Jesuit, college preparatory school for young men committed to its presence in the city of St. Louis and dedicated to building Christ's kingdom of truth, justice, love and peace. Founded in 1818, the school strives to serve an economically, socially and geographically diverse student population within the St. Louis metropolitan area. Academic excellence is a trademark of the school. We seek men and women of faith proficient in their fields and committed to leading students in co-curricular and pastoral ministry activities. The school expects faculty and staff to participate in spiritual formation programs, retreats, and Ignatian formation in education and spirituality.

The person hired for this position will teach a full-time load of English classes in a literature-based curriculum. All four years of the curriculum focus on guiding students in the development of reading and writing skills, with college-model, semester content electives in the senior year. A Master's degree and teaching experience is preferred, though we welcome any candidate who is passionate about reading, writing and teaching.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please send a letter indicating your interest and briefly summarizing your qualifications and experience, along with a comprehensive resume, to Mrs. Lori Figge (lfigge@sluh.org) in the Office of the Principal. Digital submissions preferred. Priority will be given to submissions received before March 1, 2019.
